2018-2019

Welcome to a new season of sacred music at The Cathedral of Saint Joseph. Music has always played an important role in the life of this Cathedral parish.

Included in this booklet is a listing of music to be sung by assembly, cantors and the Cathedral Choir, highlighting each Sunday, feast or liturgical season.

“Sing to the Lord a new song: sing to the Lord all the earth. Sing to the Lord, and bless his Name: proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.”

Psalm 96:1-2

“When there is devotional music, God is always at hand with His gracious presence.”

J.S. Bach

“Music for the liturgy must be carefully chosen and prepared.”

Sing to the Lord (Music in Divine Worship) Article 122

“The treasury of sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care. Choirs must be diligently developed, especially in cathedral churches.”

Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy, Article 114

“Music is the means of recapturing the original joy and beauty of Paradise.”

St. Hildegard von Bingen

“All other things being equal, Gregorian chant holds pride of place because it is proper to the Roman Liturgy. Other types of sacred music, in particular polyphony, are in no way excluded, provided that they correspond to the spirit of the liturgical action and that they foster the participation of the faithful.”

LENT

The annual Lenten season is the fitting time to climb the holy mountain of Easter. The Lenten season has a double character, namely to prepare both catechumens and faithful to celebrate the paschal mystery. The catechumens, both with the rite of elections and scrutinizes, and by catechesis, are prepared for the celebration of the sacraments of Christian initiation; the faithful, ever more attentive to the Word of God and prayer, prepare themselves by penance, for the renewal of their baptismal promises (Ceremoniale episcoporum, 249).

Note: During the seasons of Lent and Easter, “Verbum domini” is chanted following the first and second readings.

After the first reading:

Lector or Cantor:  The word of the Lord.	Assembly:  Thanks be to God.

Reader/Cantor:  Ver-bum Do-mi-ni.	Assembly:  De-o gra-ti-as.
--	--

After the second reading or if there is only reading before the Gospel:

Lector or Cantor:  The word of the Lord.	Assembly:  Thanks be to God.

Reader/Cantor:  Ver-bum Do-mi-ni.	Assembly:  De-o gra-ti-as.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER TRIDUUM

Christ redeemed us all and gave perfect glory to God principally through his paschal mystery: dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Therefore, the Easter triduum of the passion and resurrection of Christ is the culmination of the entire liturgical year. Thus the solemnity of Easter has the same kind of preeminence in the liturgical year that Sunday has in the week. The Easter triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter vigil, and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday (General Norms, 18-19).

✠ Sunday 14 April 2019

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

On this day the Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his Paschal Mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this entrance of the Lord takes place at all masses, by means of the Procession or the Solemn Entrance before the principal mass or the Simple Entrance before other Masses. The Solemn Entrance, but not the Procession, may be repeated before other Masses that are usually celebrated with a large gathering of people. It is desirable that, where neither the Procession nor the Solemn Entrance can take place, there be a sacred celebration of the Word of God on the messianic entrance and on the Passion of the Lord, either on Saturday evening or on Sunday at a convenient time.

Tuesday of Holy Week / Chrism Mass

All Christians are anointed because all are filled with the Spirit's gifts for the building up of the church and the church's service to the world. In every local church one Christian presides in love and orchestrates the church's ministry. This is the bishop, or chief pastor. It is not surprising, therefore, that the most ancient liturgical witnesses designate the bishop as the consecrator of the sacramental oils. Although priests once blessed the oils of the catechumens and the sick and may do so in some circumstances, only the bishop may consecrate the chrism with which the baptized are sealed at confirmation and ordination. This rite is one of the last rites of preparation before the Triduum begins. Before the local church baptizes, it prepares the chrism which will be used in the Vigil.

This celebration has always retained a special character of collegiality. Even in the centuries when Eucharistic concelebration had disappeared from the church's life, the ritual for the blessing and consecration of oils retained strong elements which reminded all that ministry in the church is never the work of an individual but part of a community of ministers of different gifts and responsibilities. The present celebration of the rite has been restored as full concelebration of the bishop with his clergy and with the full participation of the laity.

EASTER SEASON

During the Easter Season the Church extends the joy and gladness of Easter day throughout several weeks. The Solemnity of Easter itself, and in particular the Great Easter Vigil, is the highpoint of the liturgical year. Since the celebration of the Easter feast is of such pre-eminence, the Church extends that celebration for seven days, called Easter Week. Each day of Easter Week is a solemnity of high rank, and rituals peculiar to Easter (like the double “Alleluia” sung at the dismissal) are continued each day during Easter Week. The importance of the “Week of Easters” is such that the Church multiplies it seven times seven, creating a season of joy and festivity. Thus, the Easter Season is highly symbolic in length, a season of 7 times 7 days, culminating in the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (pente meaning “fiftieth”).

Music Notes: Rite of Sprinkling will be utilized at all weekend Masses in addition to Verbum Domini after the readings. The Cathedral Choir will also sing the Gospel acclamation versicle through Corpus Christi.
